ROSE, Guy E
b. 1898, Leeds, Maine

January 10, 1964

Mr. Guy E. Rose
Chapel Hill
Leeds, Maine

Dear Mr. Rose:

Your new booklet on trapping sounds most interesting, and we shall want to buy a copy for the library, when we learn the price, so that we can place an order. Will you let us know, please?

We are also interested in behalf of the Maine Author Collection, which is a permanent exhibit collection of books written by Maine people, or books written about the state. These volumes (more than three thousand) are inscribed copies, and are kept in the library for study and browsing by students and visitors. We hope that you will want to inscribe a copy of TRAPPING BEAVER AND FISHER IN MAINE for the collection.

Meanwhile, our very best wishes go to you for its success.

Sincerely yours

hmj

Dear Mr. Rose:

Thank you very much indeed for the autographed copy of TRAPPING MAINE BEAVER AND FISHER, which we are adding to the Maine Author Collection with pleasure and with appreciation of your generous interest.

Although the booklet's practical value is chiefly for those who intend to trap the animals, the information is of undeniable interest to anyone who knows something of their habits; and the assembling of so many facts and clear pictures indicates that you have learned a great deal about both beaver and fisher.

Sometime at your convenience, would you be willing to let us have a little biographical information? We like to have this sort of knowledge in our files on Maine writers, whether they have written one or fifty books.

We enclose an order for two copies for the general section of the library.

Sincerely yours

hmj

Guy E. Rose was born in 1898 at Leeds, Maine. With the exception of six years in Mass., Leeds has been his home.

As a small boy he trapped in the fall and winter. He has always studied the habits of animals. Besides being an experienced trapper he is an automobile mechanic by trade.

Due to an injury, rendering him unable to work, he has used his time and knowledge to write a manuscript "Trapping Maine Beaver and Fisher" - 1963. He also makes lures and bait.

He is married to the former Helen Farmer. They have one daughter, Cassalane (Mrs. James Merrill), who lives in Comm.. Guy Rose is a member of the Leeds Community Church.

Dear Mr. Rose:

Thank you very much for the copy of your new booklet, TRAPPING MAINE MINK & OTTER. This copy will go into the Maine Author Collection, and in due course you should receive an order for the library copies.

Even to some of us who do not contemplate any trapping, the information you present, and the anecdotes, make a most interesting booklet.

We appreciate your thoughtfulness in letting us know about this new one.

Sincerely yours
